

THE TRICKY MONSTAR

Mohit is playing soccer with his friends in the park on a sunny day, laughing and having fun.

Suddenly, Mohit starts sneezing uncontrollably and rubbing his itchy eyes. He looks around nervously and sees a shadowy figure of the AR Monster lurking behind a tree, grinning mischievously.

Mohit rushes home, still sneezing, and tells his mom.

At Dr. Anil's clinic, Mohit and his mom sit in the waiting room. Dr. Anil soon calls them in with a warm smile.

Dr. Anil examines Mohit and says,

Dr. Anil hands Mohit's mom a new prescription and says, "This new, alternative medicine will help, and here's a list of things to avoid at home to keep the AR Monster away."

Mohit looks relieved and determined.

Back home, Mohit takes his new medicine. His mom follows Dr. Anil's advice, using an air purifier, closing the windows and cleaning the house to reduce allergens

Mohit feels much better the next morning, waking up refreshed with no stuffy nose or itchy eyes.

Mohit heads to the park, excited to play with his friends again. The AR Monster is nowhere to be seen.

His friends cheer as he joins them, happy to see Mohit back and ready for fun. Mohit thinks, "I'm ready for any adventure, and I won't let the AR Monster win!"
